

Adam Scott Merilic

March 13, 2016

Bluefield, WV- Our Beloved and Beautiful Adam Scott Merilic went to be with our Lord Sunday, March 13, 2016 at Roanoke Memorial Hospital.

Scott was a simple man. He didn't require worldly things. His only needs were of the outdoors, the sunshine on his face and the love of his family and friends. He listened and understood with an open heart. He gave from his heart never expecting anything in return. He gave the shoes from his feet and the coat from his back when the occasion called for it. He loved people and people loved him. He had the "gift of gab" and always had a story to tell. He loved to laugh. He was precious to us. He loved hiking and inspecting the world around him: flowers, plants, trees. He was fascinated with reading and studying words, stories and books. His mind was brilliant. He was a true treasure, a gift to the world. Most of all, he loved his family.

He is survived by his mother and best friend Wanda Clyburn Williams of Bluefield, his sister who adored him Lesley Lambert and her husband Alex Lambert of Bluefield, his daughter Julie Ann Merilic of Bluefield, his sons Adrienne Scott Merilic of Columbus, Ohio and Aaron Scott Merilic of Princeton. He is preceded in death by his grandparents Aulsie and Charlie Clyburn of Anawalt and Betty and Frank Grahovac of Skygusty and countless people who loved him.

Scott worked for Lambert Construction Company and consulted with various design companies. He could do anything, had a great knowledge of so much and completed so many amazing projects. Scott loved people in spite of their flaws, always put them before himself and believed in them whether they had nothing or everything. He was so forgiving and kind to all. Although this is a heartbreaking loss, we will remember his smile, the smile that lights up a room, and the love that he had to give. We will forever adore and remember you. We will carry your spirit with us. We will stand taller knowing that you are watching over us.

A celebration of life will be held at the Cumberland Heights Baptist Church in Bluefield on Saturday, March 19, 2016 at 4:00 p.m. with Pastor J. H. Kestner officiating. Visitation with the family will be Saturday from 3:00-4:00 p.m.

“ Wanda and family,
I was so sorry to hear the news of Scott's passing. He was a great guy. Although at times we did not see eye to eye, I always had love and respect for him. He was there for me during some of the worst times of my life...without his strength and courage I don't know that I would've made it through. I will always be grateful to him. You will all be in my thoughts and prayers. May God comfort you all, and you take peace in knowing Scott is safe with Him.
