Samuel Curry

November 9, 1931 - January 21, 2014

Bluefield, WV- Samuel Jack Curry, 82, of The Maples, Bluefield, WV and formerly of Montcalm, WV, died Tuesday January 21, 2014 at The Maples. Born November 9, 1931 in Northfork, WV, he was a son of the late Samuel Curry and Betty Viola Pennington Curry. Mr. Curry was a heavy equipment operator for 35 years at the Levy Company. He liked to fish, hunt, bowl, golf and travel. He was a Mason, and was a member of the Moose. In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by his wife, Beatrice Curry; son, Bobby Curry; daughter, Jackie Curry; and sister, Betty, Naomi, Dollie and Nellie. Survivors include his children, Linda Louria of Brooksville, FL, James Curry of Flat Rock, Mich., Donna Patrick and husband Dave of Newark, DE, and Michael Curry and wife Julia of Wyandotte, Mich; grandchildren, Bobby Curry, Jr., Christine Curry, Carrie Curry, Carly Patrick, Lindsay Patrick, David Curry, Lori and Michael; great-grandchildren, Charles Curry, Dominique Denny, Brittany Pigg, Jasmine and Joey; his beloved companion later in life, Betty Riggs and her loving family; caregiver, Martha Roark and family friend, Shawn Blankenship. In accordance with his wishes, he will be cremated and a private service will be held at a later date. Those wishing to share memories or condolence messages with the family may do so by visiting www.MercerFuneralHome.com Mercer Funeral Home & Crematory is serving the family of Mr. Samuel Jack Curry.

Tribute Wall

Samuel Curry

October 05, 2023 at 06:08 PM

GJ

Jack will definitely missed by so many. He was a great companion to my mother. He was a very loving and caring person. Words cant express the hurt that comes with losing him.

Greg Jones - March 07, 2014 at 04:19 PM