

Americo Mariotti

November 9, 1915 - January 26, 2018

Americo Mariotti, 102, of The Havens at Princeton, passed away on Friday, January 26, 2018, at Bluefield Regional Medical Center. Born November 9, 1915, in Mccomas, West Virginia, he was a first generation American, born to Italian immigrants Erminio and Natalina Mariotti.

In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by his wife, Sarah Elizabeth; son, Ronald Mariotti; four brothers and five sisters.

Surviving children are his daughter Natalie S. Mariotti, of Washington, DC; and son Dolph Mariotti, of Tampa, FL; grandson Ronald II and wife Carrie of Gainesville, VA; grandson Mark and wife Melina of Greensboro, NC, with children Hampton and Shelby. Also left to cherish his memory is a sister Elettra Mariotti of Annapolis, MD.

Entombment took place at Woodlawn Memorial Park on Monday, January 29, 2018. Those wishing to make memorial contributions are asked to contribute to their favorite charity.

The family wishes to thank his many caregivers, and especially the staff at the Havens.

Those wishing to share memories or condolence messages with the family may do so by visiting www.MercerFuneralHome.com Mercer Funeral Home of Bluefield is serving the Mariotti family.

Cemetery Details

Woodlawn Memorial Park Cemetery

Bluefield, WV

Tribute Wall

“ Americo Mariotti

October 05, 2023 at 06:08 PM

“ Natalie, Dolph, and family. We are so sorry for your loss and are thinking of you.

Gloria Dickson Wood and Jim

Gloria Wood - February 03, 2018 at 09:42 AM