“ I am so so so sorry to hear about Amy. I am still in total shock! From the childhood memories that I can remember of us growing up,; she was such a wonderful friend.. I can remember us climbing trees, having sleepovers, making kool-aid w/sugar and sneaking to do stuff w/o getting caught. I didn't see her much after school, but I know in my heart she was a wonderful mother. I can remember Rick showing me pictures of her and her family as well as Tessa's. My heart pours out for you during this time, but I also pray that love and comfort will be with you. She's up in Heaven now with no pain or suffering, but also an angel who is still looking down on her children and family. She will be missed terribly but I know that one day I hope to see her again! I'm sorry I didn't make it to the viewing or funeral, but I didn't find out till today...If any of you need anything, please contact me. Love and Prayers
