

Anne Owen Wilson Long

December 8, 1932 - October 6, 2014

Winston-Salem, NC- Anne Owen Wilson Long, 81 of Valencia Circle Winston-Salem, NC, formerly of Bluefield, WV, went to be with the Lord on Monday, October 6, 2014, after a brief battle with cancer. Anne was in the comfort of her home, encircled with family and loving friends that evening.

Born December 8, 1932, Anne was the daughter of the late William Clark Wilson, Sr.. and Avis Carrington Owen Wilson. She was a graduate of both Concord College and West Virginia University, where she developed her love of reading and teaching. Her love and dedication of teaching children for 33 years followed her to La Porte, Indiana, Bluefield, WV and Fairfax County Virginia. Upon her retirement in 1988, she returned to Bluefield, WV where she enjoyed spending time with family and friends. She was an active and lifelong member of Bland Street United Methodist. Outside of church, Anne loved to craft, read and spoil her beloved dogs.

Anne is survived by her son, William Taylor Long, Jr. of Tucson, AZ and her brother William Clark Wilson, Jr. and his wife Jennie Lee Wilson of Winston-Salem, N.C.; and several nieces and nephews.

A graveside service to celebrate Anne's life will be held on Saturday October 25, 2014 at 1:00 PM at Monte Vista Park Cemetery in Bluefield, WV.
