

Annie Wray Harris

October 3, 1931 - December 18, 2013

Bluefield, VA- Annie Lee Wray Harris, loved and loving wife and mother is spending Christmas this year in the presence of her Savior, Jesus Christ. She left this life to join Him early Wednesday morning, December 18. Born October 3, 1931, she fought the good fight and kept the faith. She leaves behind her loving husband of over 64 years, Wilmer Harris of Bluefield, Virginia and two daughters, Debbie Bowling of Bluefield, West Virginia and Bernice Jacobe of Salisbury, North Carolina. She also leaves four brothers and their families: Thurman and Bonnie Wray of Floyd, Virginia; Herman and Eileen Wray of Linesville, Alabama; Charlie and Sette Wray of Sherburne, New York; and Herbert and Judy Wray of Vinton, Virginia. Her brother Rufus predeceased her. Her four sisters and their families, Ruth and Russell Young of Roanoke, Virginia; Corinne and R.K. Albert of Vinson, Virginia; Mary and Harold Mullens of Ferrum, Virginia; and Wanda Nolley of Pilot, Virginia will also miss her. She was "Memaw" and "Mother" to her four grandchildren, along with their families, Ann Leveille (Doylestown, PA), Adam Bowling (Dublin, VA), Jakki Coll (Cleveland, NC) and David Jacobe (Salisbury, NC). She had taken great joy in watching her five great-grandchildren (Lolo, Julian, Zak, Jess and Lydia) grow. It was important to spend time with them whenever they came home to visit at Christmas and during the summer. She spent her life making a home for her family, and later welcoming friends and family to visit as often as possible. She enjoyed going to their camper at Claytor Lake during the spring and summer months and spending time with her friends there. She enjoyed cooking and her flowers and going to yard sales. Her friends at church and her neighbors were all important to her. She was always willing to lend a helping hand in any situation any way she could. She will be greatly missed by those left behind, but we all wish her the VERY BEST Christmas yet and look forward to seeing her again soon. Our greatest memory of her will be her smile, which she always had with her. "Often in life what appears to be an ending is really a glorious beginning."-R.H.Heinlein Visitation has been set for 6-8 p.m. on Friday night (December 20) at Mercer Funeral Home located at 1231 Cumberland Road, Bluefield, West Virginia. Services will be on Saturday at 2:00 pm at the same location. Burial will be held at 10:00 am Monday (December 23) at Southwest Virginia Veteran's Cemetery in Dublin, Virginia. “ My deepest sympathies at the loss of your wife and mother. I have so many memories of your mom. Riding the train to Williamson to see you and the great times she helped create. Times I will never forget. You are in my thoughts and prayers. I lost my mom on October 13 of this year so I understand your loss. Richard “ Sincere sympathy to Wimer and family at this time of grief. Anne was a true christian lady and is surely rejoicing with the Lord today. I had the pleasure of her friendship as a neighbor and always enjoyed her company. Anyone who knew her was richer and blessed by her life. God bless all of the family at this time.
