“ Barbara was a kind gentle person who you could go to at anytime. She will be missed terribly. She was usually in the church if the church doors were open. Now she is celebrating with Jesus.

“ Barbara was a first cousin and I remember her from early childhood. Her mother, Letha Caudill Cseh and my mother, Elizabeth Caudill Little were sisters and we spent time at the family homes for Sunday dinners, Holiday dinners and casual visits just to say hello. Barbara was always a sweet person who saw the light side of life and projected that in her behavior. As she and I became adults with families of our own, we kept in touch and attended Sacred Heart Catholic Church in Bluefield WV together for many years where I volunteered and later worked. After her retirement she began to volunteer her many talents at the parish church. I had by that time relocated to Roanoke VA but kept in touch with her by telephone, She recently attended services for my daughter Kelly Rae Miller Neal who died suddenly at the age of 47 on March 14. Barbara knew my heartache and attended her service held at Woodlawn Memorial Park to offer me and my family her support and love. On that cold and snowy day we promised to stay close by phone. Her sudden death, like my daughters, shocked many and brought to light the realization that our time on this earth is not our own but God's. She served her God faithfully and was an inspiration to many. Her husband Lewis and sons John and Joe and grandsons will remain in my prayers as they grieve the loss of spouse, mother and grandmother. May her soul and the souls of all the faithful departed through the mercy of God rest in peace. Until we meet again cousin, I will miss your presence in my life. Beverly Little Miller - Roanoke VA.
