“ When I went to Jr high I Met Benjy. He was short and tiny and full of spunk, just like me and he was one of my best friends. We would tie people shoes together in class if they fell asleep and we had each others back no matter what. I remember having a party when my parents were gone camping and everyone trashed the place but Benjy was the only one to help me clean it up. We talked about everything that night and he was great. He gave me the best advice.I have been thinking about all the times at Misty Justices' house and with Amber D, Tessa and Amy. Then about a month ago we talked and he was telling me how much he loved his boy and little girl and how excited he was about them. I love you Benjy, I will miss you and think of you always.....

When I lived in bluewell my brother and Benjy were such good friends. He was so tough. My daddy use to say he is lil but he is a tough lil booger 😂 my heart is broke for his family. I hadn't seen benjy in a while. He was a good guy. I just hate this so bad. Too young but he is always going to be in our hearts. Rest In Peace Benjy.

“ Benjy was the best friend a kid could have growing up. I remember how happy I was when he moved in next to me on the Backroad in Bluewell, and everyday his grandmother would have beans and vegetable soup waiting for us after school. We will miss you buddy, you will never be forgotten. Please keep his mom, sisters and children in you prayers daily.
