“ This is really hitting me, a beautiful soul taken too fast I would have ever thought April 2, 2023 would be the day I got a call from my mom saying she wasn't with us no more. Man she will be missed everyday for the rest of my life. I remember we was in Blacksburg at the hospital and she kept calling Dynashia my name and calling me Dynashia it's just the little things like that make you have a smile or two. She was nice to everybody around her no matter what you did in the past. she had such a pretty face boyyy mawmaw hated germs she made sure she washed her hands. I remember everytime i would give her a kiss/hug she would say "does my hair/eyebrows look okay?" and i would say yes it looks greats I would make her smile all day if I could. I wish we could all have just one more day with her I wouldn't wish for anything else but to see her one more time. She loved seeing all her grandkids...When I was younger we would play eye spy in my moms kitchen 5 years ago I didn't think about how important someone is till there no longer here this hit me like a stain on a shirt that doesn't wash off mawmaw I know you're with us in the heart watch down on us like we looking up at you life isn't the same without you I will miss asking for some cookies or some sprite you would never tell us no , no matter how much you had left.- Jayda D

“ My heart goes out to my sisters, my stepmother and the rest of the family that is hurting right now. Mrs.K was such a special person with so much love in her heart. I remember everyday after school going to Wade Elementary I would go over to Mrs.K House until it was dark. She welcomed me and always treated me like her very own. That yellow house was my second home. I will forever be grateful to have known you Mrs.K and honored to receive the love you gave me. You gave me the confidence I needed from a young age and I'm thankful for that. I pray for everyone that is hurting right now just try to keep y'all heads up high even if the tears continue to fall. She is watching over you all and reunited with another great piece of her heart Pumpkin. No longer suffering on this world and in the arms of our Heavenly Father. I love you all and keeping everyone lifted in prayer!!!❤️🙏

“ My first bestfriend on this earth, the first person to hold me when I came into this world, the person that taught me so much about God, the person that was my only contact when I got my first cell phone, the person that played with me even when you were tired, the person that always talked to me , the person that cooked for me, the person that never let me forget how beautiful I am, the person that was there for me no matter what, not only were you my first bestfriend but your also my Mawmaw, grandmother, 2nd mother, and literally one of the biggest pieces to my heart. If you know me then you know I love this woman beyond words. When I say life will never be the same for me again it will never be the same. But if it's one thing I know you are now at peace and God is taking great care of you. I know that your reunited with your children that you grieved the lost of for so many years and I know they were so happy to be reunited with there mama. I love you so so much and even though i know you are no longer here physically i know i have gained a new guardian angel. I promise i will still continue to talk your head off and i will be missing you with every breath that i take until i get to hug you again. this is the hardest thing ive ever had to type but i had to for my bestfriend. i will be praying and waiting for the day i get to see you again thank God i know the next time will be for a eternal lifetime but until then i know that God will give me the strength and my husband or like you always called him Mr. Handsome himself (your grandson-n-law) will take care of me and be my bestfriend. I promise to take care of my mom for you because I know you loved your kids and grandkids like no other! Like you always told me its never goodbye but see you later. I love you I love You I love you.
