October 28, 1971 - October 8, 2019

BrianTefera (“Poda”) Bradshaw

Homegoing Celebration

October 12, 2019

Born October 28, 1971 in Bluefield, WV Brian(Poda) was the son of James Millner and Shelia Jo (Bradshaw) Loftin, he was a graduate of Graham High School and Bluefield State College.

Poda was an Addiction Specialist, that believed in a second chance, however his greatest position ever was being the best husband and father to his beautiful family, He was a member of ‘One Church’ in Gahanna, OH where he resided. Poda will always be remembered as the “Peacemaker” he was loved by all and has left his mark on all of our hearts, he was a diehard Dallas Cowboy fan and was known to suit up for their game.

He is preceded in death by his Maternal Grandmother Mrs. Velma Bradshaw with whom he spent his childhood.

Those left to cherish and carry on his legacy are his devoted wife Betty Bradshaw, his son Isaac and daughter Isabella which were his pride and joy; also his mother Shelia Jo and James Loftin of Mobile AL; his father James Millner of San Jose CA; brothers, Derrick Bradshaw of Bluefield, Va; Jay (Angela)Loftin of Kissimmee FL; Bob Millner of Phoenix AZ; Jafra Millner of Long Beach CA; Joshua Millner of Cupertino CA, with a host of other relatives and friends.

The celebration of life for Brian(Poda) Bradshaw will be Saturday October 12, 2019, Viewing from 11:00 am to 12:00 pm. With service beginning at 12:00 pm at Tabernacle Missionary Baptist Church on Wilson St. Bluefield, VA.

“ To the Family of Brian (Potter-Poda) Bradshaw, I just wanted to send a message that you all are in my thoughts & prayers this morning. As a child/teen I spent summers in Bluefield with my grandparents & hung out with the neighborhood kids, including Rusty & Potter. Summers were full of: the playground, Dudes place, VBS, Dairy Queen etc. I did not know Potter well, but have seen on Facebook that he was a godly, dedicated husband and father. My prayers will continue for his wife and kids. As well as his Aunts, cousins, and all friends & family. 💙🙏 Dana Serrano (Bob & Doshy Mason's Granddaughter)
