When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom filled room,
Why cry for a soul set free?

Miss me a little, but not for long
And not with your head bowed low
Remember the love that once we shared
Miss me, but let me go.

For this is a journey we all must take
And each must go alone.
It's all part of a master plan
A step on the road home.

When you are lonely and sick at heart
Go to the friends we know.
Laugh at all the things we used to do
Miss us, but let us go.

A private family service will be held on Monday February 5, 2024 at Roselawn Memorial Gardens.

“ Patricia, Lisa and John,
So sorry to hear about the loss of your parents. My Memories of Hank and Janice go back to about 1970 and they were both instrumental in helping me launch, what turned out to be a lifelong career in the retail business. Hank hired me to work part-time at Cox's Department Store in Bluefield and later helped me get into management positions. We had some fun times there in the store and on many of the New York trips I took with both Hank and Janice. I remember Hank, who on the outside to many, was a rough and tumble kind of guy but on the inside was a gentle and caring man. Janice was just a very sweet woman to everyone. He was always very proud of his kids and be thankful that you had them as many years as you did. I will always cherish the time I spent with both of them. May you find peace in your faith.

Prayers for the family. Janice and I worked together for many years. She taught me so much. I loved Hank's gruffness and you would occasionally get a smile from him too if you were lucky. Hugs and prayers to their children and families.
