“ I am so sorry Jeff to see this. My Dad and all those IRS agents Dad worked with new her well. so did Mom. I know I met her a few times when Dad would help me out I had an account with the Credit Union. she was sweet. so sorry she passed. I am going thru something myself and happened upon this as Mercer is where Mom prefers and she is 94 and going thru some stuff and i just moved back to WV in June. Guess the Lord wanted me here. Hope your family know prayers for everyone and wish we could make the service. sent to an IM. ❤️🙏❤️✝️

“ Carolyn was a cousin and a dear friend. She had such a bright spirit and laughter. Will cherish the memories of our trips together and the fun times we had. I know she missed Don and now that longing is over. No doubt they are celebrating in Heaven. God's comfort for all her family who I know will miss her greatly. Love you all. Carol Ann

“ *My thoughts and prayers goes out to Carolyn's family . She was a great lady and a wonderful member of First Presbyterian Church. She was my good friend and guided me through some hard times I will always remember her with love and kindness. I know she is singing in the choir with the rest of her friends. Rest In Peace my friend
