“ Chad represented the heart of WPC. On cold winter Sundays Chad made all of us cheery. Brian told us how he silenced the youth group when he asked him his favorite song-Chad sang Jesus loves me. He is most likely singing it for Jesus and Evelyn now in Heaven.

“ Chad was really special. When he came to Westminster with his mother, he always had a smile and a special greeting for each person. He would tell all the ladies how beautiful they were. I loved his mother, too. Evelyn was in my Sunday school class when I first started teaching. She was a loving encourager.

“ I remember Chad and his mom from Westminster when I was a child. They both always had a smile & friendly hello. Chad seemed to especially like my brother, Andy..it was mutual. Fond memories...prayers for peace in your loss & heaven's gain.

“ Yes, Chad and his Mother and brother were the friendliest and nicest people you could know at Westminster Presbyterian Church! His Mother was always so kind with a warm smile and Chad always had a Hello and never met a stranger. Yes, he was one of God’s special children!

“ Chad was in my Sunday School Class at Westminster Presbyterian Church for several years. I remember him best for his exuberant spirit and hearty greeting to everyone. His voice would boom out across the parking lot when he spied someone he knew, "Hello, Mrs. Davidson!" He was always pleasant and obedient to me. Truly he was one of God's special children.

“ Chad was a one of a kind. Very people oriented and loved to eat. He also loved Cody and Tiger. I will truly miss him asking me Debbie what did you have for supper. The last thing Chad said to me was Debbie Anerson take me home then I love you.

But Jesus called them unto him, and said, Suffer little children to come unto me, and forbid them not: for of such is the kingdom of God. Verily I say unto you, Whosoever shall not receive the kingdom of God as a little child shall in no wise enter therein.

A kind hearted soul for sure. Fond memories of life around Westminster with Chad. Always spoke kind words to everyone. Whether it was Sunday School or youth group Chad was always there and involve. Truly loved his mamma! It is so neat that they are all together again and Chad is completely healed!

Remembering Chad brings a smile to my face and lifts my spirit. He and Clayton, with their sainted mother, were faithful members of WPC and always, always smiling and full of good cheer. Charlie and I looked forward to their greeting every Sunday and to witnessing the love that each of them radiated. What a blessing to all of us!
