“ Cheryl, so sorry to hear about your Dad. I guess we think everyone will live forever. I didn't realize chip had passed either. I am so sorry to hear about everyone. I guess living in North Carolina you don't hear much, ha! My Mother is living with me and she checks the Obits pretty often. Again, very sorry and our thoughts and prayers are with you... Rodge

“ *Sherill.....So sorry to read of your Dads passing. You people were such great neighbors when Joan Haynes O'Dell and I lived on Walnut Heights Just above Your home. My Brother Richard(Buddy) and wife Jaanie,And our friends the Rameys and the Boyds lived on Southview. As a child of God I can say with assurance that Charlie will not be a memory because he is in our future,and we will see him again! Praise the Lord we will see all our Families,Yours and mine! Makes me want to shout! What wonderful memories of the 3-way .....Cherry street I have . We were truly blessed to have known your dad , mom and "Chip".It is a time of mourning right now but know this....."Weeping my endure for the night but Joy comes in the morning". We will see them again. I can see the sun starting to shine now! Makes me want to shout!
