“ Cherub, I don't even know where to start. I am so blessed that I had the opportunity to work with you, get to know you, and become very close friends with you. You are one of the sweetest and most beautiful people I've ever met. I was always jealous of how cute you looked no matter what you were wearing. Your smile lit up the whole room. No matter what you were feeling and going through you always put everyone else's problems first. You were so caring. Always. You were an animal lover just like me so we had that in common and could talk about it all the time. Even if we both had the most boring day, whenever we saw each other we never ran out of things to say. We could talk about anything. You always made me laugh and I was always happy to go to work and realize I was working with you that day. When I was upset you were the first person to offer me a hug, I wish you were here now so I could do the same for you. You truly were a special person. I miss you and love you so much. I can't wait to see you again one day! Rip beautiful girl 💕💕

We are so sorry to hear this sad news. We will always hold dear the wonderful memories of 3 sweet little girls playing in the back yard. I can still see them running and chasing each other and hear their laughter as they played together. I miss those days.

We will be praying that God will comfort you both and your whole family during this difficult and sad time. Sending much Love and Prayers to You All.

“ There's no words to describe Cherub besides loving. Even on the days she was down and sad she would brighten others day just by her smile. Everything is still so unreal but she's happy now and that's all that matters. We worked together at JcPenneys. We both managed a way not to work the day of the Second Chance concert of 2014, of course we got talked to by our managers but it was worth it. Every memory was worth it. I miss your advice, your smile and if I could give you one more hug, I wouldn't let go. Rest easy Cherub, I love and miss you more than you will ever know 💕

“ I worked with cherub at jcpenny. I remember when we weren't busy we would look around at the clothes. I would find something I liked and she would either love it or hate it. I always knew I could count on her to tell me if I looked good or not. Words can not express how sad I am. Your name means angel and now you have your wings. Fly high baby girl. You will forever be missed and loved.
To the family I am so sorry for your loss. She will always be “ Cherub was a sweet and loving person. She cared for others more than herself. I worked with Cherub at jcpenny and she was a blast to be around. She was funny and just one of those people that you could trust with anything. Cherub was a unique person and would give her shirt off her back for anyone. She is such a beautiful girl and someone who has touched many lives including my own. From me and the Jcpenny family, may you rest in peace. We love you!

“ I was so sad to hear of this tragedy. Such a sweet girl gone to soon. My favorite memories of Cherub are when her and Lauren cheered together on GHS cheer squads and her and the rest of the gang coming to my house to get ready for the Christmas Formal and getting snowed in. We all made the best of it and had some laughs, took some cute photos. Prayers going up for God to help you all through this tragedy. ”

“ I remember when I first started working at jcpenneys and was put in the children's department, we exchanged names and for a month I never could get your name right so eventually I just called you Cher until I could get it right but you didn't mind, You were always nice and kind, kept everyone full of laughs. One day you explained what your name meant and it fit you perfect. You were a beautiful child and now you also have your wings. Though we only knew each for a short time I will forever keep you in my heart. You can never forget those eyes and smile even if you wanted to. Until we meet again Cher Bear! Love you, my new angel. And to the family, your Cherub was one of the best people I have ever met, you guys did a great job raising her and I am proud to say that I knew her, you all as well will be in my heart and prayers.
