

Clarence Edward Fowler

July 4, 1946 - October 22, 2015

Bluefield, WV- Clarence "Eddie" Edward Fowler, 70, of Bluefield, WV, went home to be with the Lord on Thursday October 22, 2015.

Born July 4, 1945 in Coal Mountain, WV, he was the son of the late John F. Fowler and Bessie I. Pilkins Fowler.

In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by four brothers, Walter Fowler, Johnny Fowler, James A. Fowler, and Robert F. Fowler; and three sisters, Marvella Bishop, Lula-gay Firestone and Rosa Hatfield.

He had formerly worked as a manager for NAPA Auto Parts. He retired from Advance Auto Parts.

He was known for his expertise as an auto mechanic. He even built his own car from the frame up. He loved to talk about cars over a cup of coffee.

He was a veteran of the United States Air Force. He was a member of the Faith Channel with Rev. Darrell D. Davis (Rev-up-Man) his pastor (and also his nephew).

Those left to cherish his memory are his beloved wife, Kitty Smithson Fowler; one daughter, Jodie Burton and boyfriend Randy Jones of Green Valley, WV; son, James D. Fowler and wife Rachel of Perrysburg, OH, and Jim E. Fowler of the home; sisters, Pauline Davis of Abingdon, VA, and Nancy Ross of Bluefield, WV; godson, John L. Fowler and wife Marsha of Hopewell, VA. He was a proud and loving grandpa of seven grandchildren, Jennifer L. Fowler, Jessica D. Fowler, Victoria Burton, Mason Burton, Joshua L. Fowler, Taylor Bates, and Hazel M. Fowler; one step grandson, Cody Pendergrass; one adopted granddaughter, Liz Stauffer; great-grandchildren, Chloe M. Gibson and Kiley Gibson; two step-greatgrandchildren, Jordan Tyson and Arianna Tyson; and very special family friends, Amy Helmondollar and family of Princeton, WV, and Shawn Bales of Bluefield, WV; lifelong friends, Roy Underwood of Bluefield, Richard McLaughlin of Hardyville, VA, and Wayne Shutt of Bland, VA; and a host of nieces and nephews.

He will be sadly missed by family and friends.

There will be a memorial service at Brushfork Baptist Church (Pastor Wes Lambert) on Saturday October 31, 2015 at 11:00 a.m. with Rev. Darrell Davis and Pastor Randy Smithson officiating. Special singing will be provided by Carla Bragg.

Those wishing to share memories or condolence messages with the family may do so by visiting www.MercerFuneralHome.com Mercer Funeral Home & Crematory is serving the family of Clarence "Eddie" Edward Fowler.

“ To: Jodie & family:

May God grant each of you peace and serenity during this time. I remember talking with you at the ballgames and it saddens me to see today's paper. RIP "Eddie" Fowler

“ I'm sorry to say that I didn't know Great Uncle Eddie well...I grew up with a bit of a distance between us. I had spent little time with him, but I have heard about how wonderful he was. Including the fact that my dad, John D, looks so much like him, and I've seen the proof. :) My prayers go out to his immediate family, Aunt Kitty, Jim, Jodie, and the rest of the Fowler clan, and to my grandma, Pauline Davis, and "the Davis boys"...Uncle Eddie's nephews. God bless. <3

“ To the family: Kaela, Laela, and I would like to send our love your way. You all know that I understand all to well, the feeling your experiencing. There is nothing that I can do to make your hearts feel better. However; I am always here if you need anything. Prayers will continue for you all. I met Mr. Fowler a couple months ago when he and Jim came for photos. He was a very nice man. I could tell he loved his family so much, just in the way he talked and the way Jim and Hazel loved him. I know you all will have so many memories. Write them down in a memory book! It becomes very special to have them in a notebook to read years later.

If anything I can do to make this any easier, please let me know.

“ I'll always remember his sense of humor. When I first became interested in researching our family history, he told me I better have a shovel handy so when I found that history I could cover it back up. He was always there for us when we were kids.
