“ To me CH was a man of very high standards and character. A wonderful person may he rest in peace and join so many others that have proceeded him in death. Sandy, I will not be able to make the service, but you will be in my thoughts and prayers.

I remember a story my dad told me about CH and Uncle Doug had taken some baby chickens and dug holes , put the baby chick's in the holes covered them with the dirt. Heads sticking out of the dirt with hopes that they would grow like Grandmother Johnson gave them what they had coming! Needless to say they didn't plant any moe chicks. Im sorry I will not be there to pay my respects in person. Know that my thoughts and prayers are with you in this difficult time. I loved my Uncle CH and he will be missed. The wheel is complete💔💔💔
