“ So very sorry to hear this. As crazy as it sounds, my favorite memories of Craig include us having our first fight when we were eight years old. We gave each other a black eye and we were friends ever since. Living close to each other, we walked to school together practically every day. So sorry that I did not call last Thursday when Wendi gave me the number. Was involved in project at my condo. Once again, life got in the way. RIP my very old friend.
