“ I first met Danny at Concord College, my best friend and roommate Mary Prater and I attended a 50s dance. Evidently Danny (Duffy) asked Mary to dance and she fell in love with him even though he had his hair slicked back and was totally dressed like a young man from the 50s. Danny was the only man for Mary and she never looked back. I was really stunned to hear this very sad news. I remember Danny as a sweet and easy going guy. It was a privileged to have known him. My thoughts and prayers are with you Mary and your family

“ I'm sorry to learn of Danny's passing. I always enjoyed talking to Danny and remember how he always acknowledged your presence with the slight tilt of his head and that smile. Danny was a hard worker and very conscientious about his work and was the type of co-worker that made the work place a liittle more pleasent. R.I.P. Big Guy.
