

David Brian Bourne

June 4, 1961 - December 18, 2017

Bluefield – David Brian Bourne, 56 of Littleburg Road, Bluefield died Monday, December 18, 2017 at a Charleston Hospital. Born June 4, 1961 in Bluefield, he was a son of G. Steve Bourne Sr. and Lillian Bourne. A graduate of Bluefield State College, David had worked most of his life in sales. He enjoyed writing and performing country music both locally and in Nashville, TN. He had a love of the outdoors and a passion for adventure like no other.

“I refuse to be defined by, or limited by any illness. I will continue to ride horses, scuba dive, skydive, hunt, fish and all other things I love to do. I am not leaving this world until my Savior is ready for me to and I believe at that point nothing can keep me here one second longer and nothing can take me one second sooner. So I will live my life to the fullest and the rest is in God’s hands.” – David

In addition to his parents, David was preceded in death by his sister-in-law, Roxanne Bourne and niece, Jamie Bourne. Surviving are his children, Josh Bourne and wife, Lisa of Abingdon, VA, and Holly Bourne of Raleigh, NC, brothers; Steve Bourne and wife, Vicki of Bluefield, VA and Rick Bourne of Bluefield, WV, two grandchildren; Grace and Micah Bourne, nephews and nieces; Jeremy Bourne, Ryan Bourne, Hillary Griffin and Kathleen Elswick.

“ Steve, (along with the immediate family), I was saddened to learn of David's passing. On many occasions, I can recall a group of us just sitting around in the Student Union at Bluefield State and discussing just whatever might be on our minds. What a difference twenty-odd years can make. My deepest, heart-felt condolences to David's family and loved ones, along with prayers that God will provide you all with the ability to carry on; do take care.

“ To the Bourne family, Dave was definitely a free spirit, his imagination was matched by no one I know, he definitely made me laugh and I have memories that stretch back to high school that would make all who knew him smile also, God bless him and your family and I'm sure God is having a laugh with him at this very moment.

“ David was my first boyfriend at Central Junior High. I knew Holly at Brushfork school. One day David came to see Holly at school and all the kids thought he was Alan Jackson with his long western coat, boots, cowboy hat, and blond curls hanging out of his hat. My God bless his family in peace and love.

“ You made me laugh like no one has ever made me laugh. I have missed our lengthy conversations about theology and politics. You were a worthy intellectual comrade.

“ Holly, Josh, Steve, Ricky & families
I am so sorry and saddened for the passing of David. He was my very first boyfriend, and always a good friend. We spent so much time "at the Bourne's house" on Lynn St that we were all like family. So many fond memories and some of the best of my childhood. May God give you peace at such a difficult time; you all are in my thoughts and prayers

My sincere condolences to the entire Bourne Family. I was truly shocked and saddened to learn of David's passing. David and I had lost contact with one another over the many years since High School, but had always remained good friends. I am proud to have known him. God Bless, John S. Norton & Family
