“ I had meet Mr. Buzzo many years ago, and had the honor of becoming reacquainted with him while my Mother was receiving in-patient rehab at Westwood (she was there for 3 weeks in June). Every afternoon when I would come visit her, he would speak to me. He would ask me how my day at work was, how I was feeling. He could tell if I was having a bad day, he cared! God places people in our lives sometimes for such a short period of time, but what they leave behind, what they bless us with will forever remain in our hearts! He will be missed,but always remembered!

“ Dear Family,
I met Mr. Buzzo at Westwood as I made daily visits to see my husband. He always greeted me with a smile and asked how I was doing. He spoke words of encouragement to me and told me to hang in there that everything would be okay. He was a special person and I am already missing his smiling face. Sorry for your loss,
