“ It has been almost one month since my sweet brother went home to be with His Lord. Don will always be in my heart and memory as a loving, warm, precious brother. He served his country with honor. He served His Lord with love. He lived his life with that same honor and love. Thank you Father that we will be together for eternity. Thank you too for the time Don and I shared while he lived on this earth as your loving servant. Tears flow freely from my eyes but memories bring a smile to my face.

“ Dear Jennifer and family, Our hearts beat with yours today in pain and in great joy. Pain because we don't "see" him any more (for a while, that is). Inexpressive joy because our Lord does SEE him now and forever. May His loving arms and Words of comfort (from the Bible) uphold you all during these difficult hours and guide you to His unparalleled peace. Let the Great Shepherd, Jesus Christ, guide you along these rocky paths to His green fields and deep pools of water as He had done for multitudes of others: Psalm 23.
