

Douglas Daniel Clark

July 24, 1954 - June 3, 2026

Douglas Daniel Clark, 71, of Bluefield, WV, passed away peacefully on June 3, 2026.

Born and raised in Bartley, WV, Doug was a 1973 graduate of Big Creek High School. In 1974, he wed his wife, Debra Ann Pippen.

The couple welcomed their son, Steven, in 1987, and eventually made their home in Richlands, VA.

Doug enjoyed a diverse and robust career. Over the years, he worked in manufacturing, truck driving, and the coal mines where he eventually became a mine owner.

He later began work as a railroad conductor and ultimately retired as a railroad engineer.

Retirement didn't slow Doug down; he could be found nearly every day on the golf course or at the bowling alley, sharing laughs with his friends and family.

Doug was preceded in death by his parents, Charlie Clark and Freda Carol Nunn; his wife, Debra; and his sister, Nancy Murdock.

He leaves behind to cherish his memory his son, Steven Clark, and his siblings, Dudley Clark, Sylvia Fitzgerald, and David Clark.

A memorial service to celebrate Doug's life will be held on July 11, 2026, at 1:00pm at the Lilly Grove Baptist Church in Princeton, WV.

“ I remember working with Doug always positive. Enjoyed our time together on the railroad. Also neighbors at hidden Valley in Richlands, Virginia for a while. Prayers for the family, especially Steven. He talked to you often. He was very proud of you, son.
