

Douglas Wayne Thompson

January 22, 1978 - November 1, 2018

God decided to reach down and pluck from this earth one of his BEST flowers. Douglas Wayne “Punkin” Thompson, 40, of Bluefield, WV passed away Thursday, November 1, 2018 at Bluefield Regional Medical Center after fighting a courageous battle with cancer for three years. Oh, if you truly knew Doug, cancer did not win, God just grew tired of watching his ANGEL fight and decided it was time for him to take a rest. Born on January 22, 1978 in Bluefield, WV, he was the son of Wayne Douglas and Terry Thompson. Doug was a LOVER of people and enjoyed working out, a good laugh, giving advice, and traveling. His infectious smile was contagious just like his Bear Hugs. He attended Bluefield High School and graduated in 1996. Doug worked at the Bluefield Community Center and the Cinema Movie Theater before joining the Norfolk and Southern Railroad where he was employed for 20 years. He loved music and he was so good at trying to sing. Punkin will be missed by so many.

Survivors include: his parents Wayne Douglas and Terry Thompson, two brothers: Christopher (Emily) Thompson of Chantilly, VA, Marcus (Tonya) Jones of Charlottesville, VA, and special Big Brother Sammy Harris of Bluefield, WV; and of course his faithful dog “Samson”. Doug is also survived by a host of cousins, nephews, nieces, aunts, uncles, and very special friends (too many to list individually for fear of omitting someone) who were an integral part of his life.

Doug was preceded in death by his maternal grandparents Elbert and Nannie

Thompson, his paternal grandparents Kenneth and Gracie Thompson, one aunt Constance Pannell, three uncles Maceo Thompson, Elbert Thompson, Clinton Thompson, and Ernest Wilson.

Services will be held on Wednesday, November 7, 2018 beginning at 1 pm at the Bluefield Parks and Recreation Center on Stadium Drive, Bluefield, WV, with the Reverend James Palmer officiating. Burial will follow at Restlawn Memorial Gardens in Bluefield, WV.

Viewing and Visitation with the family is from 11 am until 1 pm.

Pallbearers and flower bearers will be family and friends.

Arrangements by Mercer Funeral Home in Bluefield, WV. Those wishing to share memories or condolence messages with the family may do so by visiting www.MercerFuneralHome.com “ Sweet Memory....

*I had a vision, the night that I heard of Doug's passing. Several years ago, as he was passing the windows of the pool, he looked in and suddenly started running toward the pool door, and said, "Nathan (Goforth), my buddy, do you need a hand?" He bounded down the pool stairs, into the water and scooped him up in his massive arms and turned to climb the stairs and gently place him in a chair. Nathan looked into his eyes, smiled and offered a fist bump. It was only later that Doug's friends told me how surprised they were that Doug came into the pool area, much less into the water, for he was uncomfortable around water and avoided being there. Last Thursday, I had the vision of Nathan, among many others, there to greet him, with a hug and "job well done, my friend". ENJOY BEING...(at peace) in God's arms

“ I work with Doug’s aunt, Johnny Jenkins. I had the chance to meet this big teddy bear over two years ago.

I got a ‘Team Doug’ shirt and wore it everywhere I went. I was in Blowing Rock, NC walking and a lady stopped me and asked me if this was ‘her’ Doug from WV. I confirmed and was overwhelmed at the span of Doug’s friends that spanned facebook. What an example of a dear person. He is just like his Aunt Johnny! Heaven gained an angel!!

*Ever since I was told that Doug had cancer, I starting praying for him every day. I texted him verses, songs I sang, laughed about crazy days and he never complained when I asked “ how was your day?” He always said “ I can’t complain”. Over the years he has always been constant and never changed, his responses were always gentle so yes “teddy bear” is so fitting! Doug passed on the same day my dad was buried so I know Heaven got a golden angel! Doug has fought well and Jesus has said “ well done”
I love this song “it is well with my soul”*

I've known Doug since we worked together in the movies 24 years ago. I called him out of the blue a year again, and we talked for over 2 hours. And that's how I remember Doug, a good and funny guy that you never got tired of talking to or hanging out with.

*He was always ready to tell you a story. I can still hear him saying 'oh, wait til I tell this, I couldn't believe it.!'
I'm so sorry for your loss and he will be truly missed.*
