“ Uncle Junior, as we called him, was a really good uncle to a lot of nieces and nephews. He actually was preceded in death by four brothers: Harry, Ray & Roy (who were twins), and Fred, and five sisters: Mildred, Nellie, Hazel, Ethel, and Sylvia. He used to show all of us kids his giant Lionel train setup and would entertain us for hours as we pretended we were engineers, firemen, and brakemen. He was gentle and kind with us and always had a twinkle in his eye and a story or joke to share. Rest in your well-earned peace, Uncle Junior. I love you. Logene

“ Many years ago, Uncle Fred and Edward Jr. helped me move off East River Mountain into an old house I bought in Bluefield. He was so helpful, and he told us funny stories, but the one I remember the most and laughed at the most was when he told me that he was going real slow on one of the streets; 25 miles per hour, and was pulled over by a cop and cited for driving too slow!! He was so surprised over that ticket and the way he told the story, he had us howling with laughter. Uncle Jr. rest easy and fly with the angels now and we will see you in the not too distant future and listen to more of your funny stories. I love you, Uncle....

“ Uncle Jr. was my favorite Uncle . I have a lot of memories with him He was always joking around and kidding with me. He kept me going when I was around in the early days of my life. HI used to sell papers in Bluefield the old Grit Newspapers and would wait at the Old Colonial Theater and he would pick me up and take me on home since we just lived a short walk from each other. His old truck would be loaded with old Coke Pop Crates where he took home and used for firewood I guess He and I would go to places during the last 10-11 years before he got so bad he could not get out we would eat at the Burger Boy place and have Brown Beans and cornbread. We had lots of fun together b4 he moved in with his Friend Phyllis who watched him like a hawk I will truly miss him a lot as well as my other aunts and Uncles who have gone on before us.He will be sadly missed by his Brother and Sisters and all the Fowler Family Kathleen Fowler was my Mother and now he is with her I loved him and have loss a member of my Family God Bless Him Thank you for being a good uncle for me Eddie Frankenfield

“ To: The Fowler Family... My deepest condolences and sympathy to each of the members of Jr.'s family. Am going to miss our conversations and visits. Jr, you were part of our family and always had a way of bringing a smile to everyones face whenever we were in each others presence. Heaven is somewhat brighter now. RIP Jr. and we will meet again.
