“ I wanted to express my sincere condolences to the family. I'd also like say how thankful and honored I feel to have been a part of this wonderful ladies time at Glenwood. Not only was I her nurse she became my friend. In the few months we had together she taught me a lot.. Live life to the fullest, love your family , be appreciative of everything and everyone. Ms. Meachum was beautiful lady inside and out. I've already began missing our visits. But I know I will visit her again one day. Until then "Love and miss ya Princess". “ When Betty and Buck were married and the Priest asked ' who gives this woman?', my brother Monty cried out 'I don't want Uncle Bob to give Betty away'. This is according to my mother Louisa Williamson Bracey.
