

Frank Michael Mamone

July 4, 1945 - January 18, 2025

Frank Michael Mamone of Bluefield, West Virginia, passed away on January 18, 2025, at J.W. Ruby Memorial Hospital in Morgantown, West Virginia. Born on July 4, 1945, in Princeton, West Virginia, to Tony and Barbara Mamone, Frank grew up in Matoaka until age eight before the family relocated to Bluefield. He was an altar boy at Sacred Heart Catholic Church, where he also attended grade school. Frank graduated from Bluefield High School in 1963 and later earned an Accounting Degree from Bluefield State College. Frank married Helen Carole Counts, June 29, 1968, and had two daughters, Leah Catherine Farrin and Gina Marie Mamone. He was a doting grandfather to Amelia, whose talents and achievements brought him great joy. For over 42 years, Frank owned and operated Carpet Wholesale Outlet. Known for his generous spirit, Frank was involved with the Food Pantry at Sacred Heart Catholic Church. He was beloved by his nieces and nephews. His weekly poker games at Fincastle and love for spaghetti and meatballs were legendary among family and friends. He brought happiness into our lives and created beautiful memories that we will cherish in his honor. Frank is survived by his wife, Carole Mamone, daughters Leah Catherine Farrin and Gina Marie Mamone. Granddaughter Amelia Grace Farrin. His sisters, Yolanda Mamone (Bill), Jean Riecken (Glenn), Susie Holdren (Rodney), Frances Mamone (Steve), and Theresa Liipfert (Bailey). His brothers, Tony Mamone (Habibi) and Michael Mamone (Ryan). His sister-in-law Ann Rauhauser (Bill) and brother-in-law Bud Matney (Ronelle). Frank will be deeply missed by friends and family.

2 Corinthians 9:7-8

"Each one must give as he has decided in his heart, not reluctantly or under compulsion, for God loves a cheerful giver. And God is able to make all grace abound to you, so that having all sufficiency in all things at all times, you may abound in every good work."

“ So sorry.and so sad to here of franks passing, he was always so kind to me and lennie,I'll always charishmy memories of him,Dean, charly in the card room. He and charly were so generous in giving and never wanted anyone to know where the gifts came from,many a day I was sent to Walmart at Christmas to buy bicycles,and toys for tots,and told not to say who they were from,once lennies basement flooded ,and frank and charly gave her all new tile and carpet, frank always was the first to give,and there were so many acts of kindness just like I stated,but he and charly never wanted the credit,they loved seeing the kids smile,we had so many laughs ,frank loved his wife and children more than anyone could know,I'll miss my friend and love and cherish many memories, prayers to all the family, love ya rick and lennie tabor ( chef rick)

“ Dear Carol and Family, My heart goes out to you at this difficult time. You both were such good neighbors and Charlie considered Frank a great friend. We were blessed to get to know you both. I especially enjoyed Gina's company when she visited. May God hold you close as you navigate this sad road. Sending prayers. Charlotte Sacre Worsham
