

Gary William Peloubet

July 17, 1956 - January 6, 2026

Gary William Peloubet, 69, of Bluefield Virginia, suddenly passed away at his home on January 6, 2026. Gary was born in Catskills, New York on July 17, 1956. He was the son of Clark and Sally Peloubet.

Gary was a dedicated and hard-working man whose life was defined by his craftsmanship and commitment to his work. A skilled handyman and carpenter, he took pride in building and fixing with his hands. His work ethic and practical skills were admired by those who knew him.

Gary was a loving son, husband, father, grandfather and friend to all. He loved deeply and would do anything to help others. He loved visiting his children and spending time with his grandchildren.

He is lovingly remembered by his wife, Jennifer Peloubet. Gary's memory lives on through his children: Josh Husband and his wife Kimberlee; Justin Husband and his wife Brandy; Jason Husband and his wife Alesia; Jordan Husband and significant other Tiffany; and Kristin Cole and her husband Adam. He was a proud Poppy to Tessa Husband, Emilee Husband, Aaron Husband, Olivia Husband, and Kasen Cole. He is also survived by his mother, Sally Peloubet; his brother, Dale Peloubet and his wife Debbie; nephews: Derek Peloubet, David Peloubet, John Peloubet, Brady Peloubet, Michael Peloubet; Niece: Amber Wilcox; cousins: Renee Peloubet Bledsoe and Patty Scott; and his special uncle, Emory Miles.

Gary was preceded in death by his father, Clark Peloubet; his brother, Starr Peloubet; his mother in law, Dot David; and cousin, Andy Peloubet.

In respect of his wishes, he will be cremated and a celebration of Gary's life will be held at a later date to honor the impact he had on those around him.

Tribute Wall

“ 2 files added to the tribute wall

Kristin Cole - January 09 at 03:46 PM