“ Webster Carroll was our friend back here in Uganda at Copytex Bureaux. He loved my daughter so much . We never had chance to see Madam Carroll but always sent greetings. My husband passed on in 2010 but he was very fond of Webster. May his soul R.I.P. and may the good Lord confort the widow.

“ I received word (a month later) from a missionary in Central America that Webb died. I was flooded with emotions and memories. My first missionary experience was with this dear man of God. Consequently, I have spent the last 15 years working in East Africa. In my eyes, he was one of the greatest missionaries of our day. O how I wish I could have joined the celeration service. Yet, I look forward to seeing my friend in heaven and to hear some of those wonderful mission stories again. My prayers go with the family and especially with his dear wife Betty. Rick Sadler, Pres. “ Dear Betty and Family, Last month I felt I should try and call Web so I dialed his cell phone number but learned it was disconnected. I then tried to locate a new number through the Yellow Pages online directory but could not find a listing. I gave up but now I feel very bad because I would have possibly been able to speak to my dear friend Web before he passed away. Web was one of the most courageous dedicated Christians that I have ever known. I am so glad to call him my friend. I went on four or five mission trips to Uganda, one with my son Sam, and got to know and love this dear man and Betty. Rita and I stopped to see him and Betty in Bluefield two years ago when we dropped our daughter off at Southeastern Seminary for school and knew that may be the last time that I would ever see him. He still had the same courageous spirit and depth of love for our Lord. I will see him again one day in glory. He was one of God's choicest servants. This man loved the people of Africa so much and shared his life with them. It broke his heart to have to leave them when he retired, but his health required him to come back to America. Our loss is Heaven's gain. Betty and family, I ask that God would give you His great comfort and peace this Christmas. I know it won't be the same without Web. You will see him and be with him again, so please take comfort in Jesus' words, "I am the resurrection and the life. He who believes in me, will live, even though he dies." John 11:25

“ The Lord blessed me by sending the Carrolls into my life many years ago. They are truly saints of God. My prayers and thoughts are with the entire family. We are confident, I say, and willing rather to be absent from the body, and to be present with the Lord. 2 Corinthians 5:8
