“ I was one of Grannies nurses for about 3 yrs. She was one of the most precious women I've ever met. Never a harsh word or even a raised voice. She was truly one of my favorites. She will be missed

Granny was a patient where I worked before retiring but I first met her at the steakhouse. She was such a sweetheart and everyone knew and loved her. She went through so much heartache losing her family. She always had a smile for each person she met. My heart and prayers go out to those left behind. RIP Granny, you deserve it and deserve to be with our Lord and Savior and to be made whole again.
