“ I carry so many fond and loving memories of my Aunt Gerl—more than words could ever truly capture. What I can express is how deeply she made me feel. She made me feel unconditionally loved, without judgment, always offering a listening ear and gentle guidance only when it was needed. She had a special way of seeing people, a quiet discernment that allowed her to find humor in who they were, often sharing lighthearted jokes that brought joy to everyone around her. She embraced life fully, with a fun-loving and warm spirit that touched all who knew her. Truthfully, I began missing my Aunt Gerl long before her final days, and that longing only reflects just how much she meant to me. Lovingly, Sabrina Kelley (neice)
