“ Terry and Lisa, So sorry for your loss- know that you and yours are in my prayers.

Elaine C. Harper - March 07, 2014 at 04:20 PM

“ I was sad to see Trudy started her trip to heaven so soon. I remember Trudy when she worked at Deskins when I was a little girl, she was so funny and sweet to be around. I saw her just a couple of months ago at the supermarket and she was just the same as when I was little. I have wonderful thoughts and memories of Trudy.

“ Our thoughts and prayers will be with the family. Although we did know Trudy, if she was anything like Steve, the son she raised, she was truly a fun, caring and thoughtful person. We are blessed to have him in our lives and I know he feels blessed to have had his Mom in his life. We wish you all peace and love in your hearts in this sorrowful time.

“ Death is Nothing At All Death is nothing at all. I have only slipped away to the next room. I am I and you are you. Whatever we were to each other, That, we still are. Call me by my old familiar name. Speak to me in the easy way which you always used. Put no difference into your tone. Wear no forced air of solemnity or sorrow. Laugh as we always laughed at the little jokes we enjoyed together. Play, smile, think of me. Pray for me. Let my name be ever the household word that it always was. Let it be spoken without effect. Without the trace of a shadow on it. Life means all that it ever meant. It is the same that it ever was. There is absolute unbroken continuity. Why should I be out of mind because I am out of sight? I am but waiting for you. For an interval. Somewhere. Very near. Just around the corner. All is well. Death Poem by Henry Scott Holland ~ 1847-1918 Canon of St. Paul's Cathedral ~ London. UK
