

Harold "Randy" Scott

February 12, 1939 - November 26, 2013

Bluefield, WV- Harold Randolph Scott, born February 12, 1939, in Bluefield, WV, to the late William A. Scott and Emily Kyle Johnson, entered the presence of His Lord on November 26, 2013. He was preceded in death by his first wife Sheila Max Scott. Left to mourn their loss are his wife Carolyn Meyer Scott; his two sons Brian Randolph Scott of Mercer County and David Kyle Scott and his wife Zinah of Murfreesboro, TN; brothers Edward "Sonny" Scott (Libby), Don Scott (Peg), and Larry Scott (Anne); and sister Shirley Tickle (Carl). Other survivors include step-children William "Bud" Meyer, II, (Cheri), John Eric Meyer (Heidi), and Beth Ann Meyer. Four grandchildren called him Poppaw: Leah Meyer, John Meyer, Laura Meyer, and Joshua Meyer. He is also survived by his faithful canine companion Prince. Both family and friends will remember "Randy" as a kind, generous, humble, gentle, hard-working Christian man. Of utmost importance to him was his obedient service to God. He began his Christian walk while young, attending Ebenezer Methodist Church of Bluefield, VA. As a young man, he sang as guest soloist in Bluefield and surrounding areas. In recent years, he was a member of Westminster Presbyterian Church, Bluefield, WV, where he sang with the choir and served as deacon. As long as his health permitted, Randy served as a general yardmaster for the Norfolk & Western Railroad in Bluefield, WV. He loved giving others gifts produced by his woodworking and cooking skills. An avid sportsman, he maintained membership in the Triangle Sportsman's Club. The funeral service will be held at 2 p.m. on Saturday, November 30, 2013, at Mercer Funeral Home in Bluefield, WV. His pastor, Jonathan Rockness, will be officiating. Visitation will be held at 1 p.m. prior to the service. In lieu of flowers, memorial donations to the Bible in the Schools (Bluefield Schools) may be sent to P.O. Box 543, Bluefield, WV 24701 or given through www.mercerbits.org.
