“ Dr. Warren and Nancy, I am so sorry for your recent loss of your loved one. However, I know you both feel blessed to have her to the wonderful age of 96. We just celebrated the 90th birthday of my mother in law and it is very special when we are fortunate enough to have them so long. Our thoughts and prayers are with you during this difficult time.

“ You have lost a dear mother and we all have lost a great friend. Ms. Hazel was a wonderful person. I didn't know she was over Westwood or I would have stopped in to see her, my father is over there so I'm usually over there everyday. Words can't say what I thought of your precious mom loved her dearly and will be praying for all of you God Bless You Connie
