“ Aunt Hazel was a wonderful person and a super aunt. She was always very encouraging and had a positive outlook on life. I remember as a little boy, my father (Frank) and I going to visit her. She always had something to eat and her blackberry cobbler was the best. She was very family oriented, looked forward to the family reunions, and she was always there for her family (even if it meant riding a Greyhound for hours to get to wherever). I talked to Aunt Hazel a couple of weeks ago and the last words she shared with me was "Danny, I love you". I love you too, Aunt Hazel, and I will never forget you, and you will live on in my thoughts forever. May you rest in peace and God be with you.

Love, your nephew,
