“ Louise was a remarkable woman, a dear friend, neighbor, and part of our family by association. My children loved to look at the pictures of her dogs that she owned through the years and animal figurine collections when we visited. Louise was an animal lover and supported animal rights. Although a very private person, she was a joy getting to know through the past ten years. I'll miss her whit, her bright blue eyes, the humor, her laugh, and the many other moments we were blessed to share with her. She had a long life and a kind caregiver at the end to look after her. I'll miss you Louise.
