“ My heart goes out to my sister Susie and her family at the loss of HN. Henry was not a brother-in-law he was more of a brother spent many times at their home he was always so kind and always so good to me I have memories to last me a lifetime of him. I always loved to sit with him and listen to stories of my dad and my poppy Cochran. He had a wonderful heart and love many people I will love him forever and I will miss him forever you're in heaven now with my Megan please have a dance with her I love you
