“ Look at that face.....it is no wonder her daughters and granddaughter are so pretty. Jackie was my second mom during my teenage years. I remember the first time I visited her home when I was in the 7th grade at Fairview Jr. High School in 1968. Jackie always opened her home and made all of her daughter's friends feel welcome. She was so big hearted. Jackie put up with me almost every weekend from 1968 through 1974. She was a fun mom and always showed her love and kindness to me. I will always cherish the last day I got to visit with Jackie. She was in the hospital here in Roanoke and I was welcomed yet again by Jackie and J.R. and Tina and Teresa. Jackie was having a good day and we all sat in her room and reminisced and laughed about the funny things that had happened back when she and J.R. would take me to the lake every weekend, or to the ball games, or shopping, or just hanging out at their house. I was impressed that after 40 years, Jackie remembered what my favorite food was that she would prepare. Nobody could fry up a breakfast steak and gravy like Jackie. I would eat until I felt like I was going to pop. Love you beautiful lady...always did and always will.....Charlotte
