“ Jeanette and I were friends in junior high and high school. We lost touch over the years and I have often thought about her and hoped to renew our acquaintances. I didn't know her married name to be able to contact her.

My condolences to her family and friends for her passing.

“ What a lady. Always smiling and never a bad word about anything, She gave me a lot of good advice when I first met her some 30 years ago or more while I was dealing with her at the pharmacies in my capacity as a young delivery guy. Praying that Albert and the family find peace in knowing she was so loved by everyone who knew her.
RIP Jeannette.
