“ One thing I forgot to say when I posted my memories of John-- whenever we talked on the phone, at the end of our conversation, he would always say "bye for now". So to dear Johnny, "BYE FOR NOW---I LOVE YOU!"

“ I will miss your friendship, funny jokes and laughter. You were such a wonderful friend and I shall miss you always. Your strength and endurance during your long illness were beyond all and you fought a hard fight and won the battle. The heavens are smiling. The pain felt by those who will miss you is because you were loved. Bye for now, John, bye for now.

“ So many sweet memories of my brother John. Always thoughtful, intelligent, comforting and funny, but most important, he was so loving of family and friends. Never an unkind word or thought from his brilliant mind. I loved him unconditionally, and that love was reciprocated throughout his life. He never failed to mention a comfort blanket I made for him years ago, and he used it daily. I will miss him the rest of my life, until we meet again. Rest in peace, sweet brother. You deserve it after all the years you have endured your failing health. Love forever, your sister Fran (ces).

“ Johnny, I know you are in a better place and talking and laughing with those around you. Probably telling a joke or two!
You were a dear loving brother and a wise and faithful friend to me.

Thoughts and prayers go out to the Armentrout Family at this time. John was kind, thoughtful, and caring. He had not changed much since our days together at Tazewell High School. Love the picture above with Ryan Armentrout. Shades of the Armentrout family all over Ryan's handsome fun-loving face. With love to all, Jeanne Royall Hillman
