“ It's been 5 years since my dad passed, and I miss him everyday. It warms my heart to see people sharing their memories of him. Thank you ❤️

“ John was a wonderful and kind soul. A treasure trove of all the fond memories playing at each other's house, spending time with his loving family. We probably watched "Nighthawks" together about a hundred times more than any other two kids in history (of the entire universe). He had an incredibly strong breast stroke, a work of art. I was lucky to have him as my best friend on those old Blue Dolphin swim teams. The fun we had at the swim meets...the best of times. But the worst of Speedos. You made my life better and I can't thank you enough for that, my friend.

*You will be missed, JB. Thoughts, love and prayers for your family.
God Bless eternally.*

“ It has been at least twenty five years since I last saw John. We went to high school together, and had a few of the same classes. John was a funny guy, and we often found ourselves off to the side chatting while the rest of the world rolled by. I always was happy to see him, and to just hang out with him. But as often happens, after we left our common environment we rarely saw each other.

The last time I saw him was at the Mercer Mall, a couple years after high school. We were both running errands, but when we ran into each other we got to talking and ended up sitting on a bench catching up and watching the world go by for well over an hour. I'm sad that I never got to see John again, and just found out this morning that he has passed. But I'm glad that the last time I did see him is such a warm memory.

Rest in peace John.
