“ *Johnny was my little brother in our fraternity at Wittenberg. He lived in the same residence hall and was quite homesick for Becky early in his college days.
I was able to attend his wedding and my wife and I visited in Bluefield. He and Becky were welcoming and gracious hosts. Johnny had class. The world needs more gentlemen like him. Rest in peace.*

“ There are no words for the legacy that John Beckett left behind, or the amount of people he has made an impact on. I know Mom that your love and his love has made an unbelievable difference in my life when you adopted me and gave me the honor and chance of being a part of your family. You both have always taught us the very most valuable lessons in life, and no one could have ever had better parents. Sending love, thoughts, and prayers to you mom. Please stay strong and let the many wonderful memories of the life you had together help carry you through this painful time. Love always...
