“ I have to share a memory of John. We had a tradition for many years for sending very mean and insulting birthday cards to each other every year. LOL I'm going to say that John started it all....he might would argue that given the opportunity. I always looked forward to seeing what my birthday card would be from John. And sometimes I would have his card WAY ahead of time because I would find one that was just too good! We stopped doing it a few years ago....we should have kept it up!

But John was a great brother-in-law. I've been going through some tough times lately and John was overly supportive of me when I wasn't so sure he would be. It meant a lot to me. I will miss his funny commentary when I am talking to my sister on the phone! He might not have had a lot to say but he was pretty good at getting his 2-cents worth in when he wanted to. HaHa

He was a great husband to my sister and I hate how much she is going to miss him, let alone all the rest of us. I'm sure he already has a beautiful yard and garden in heaven. Until we meet again....

“ There are no words that can adequately bring comfort at a time like this. We can't really know the shock and pain you are living in right now. But our thoughts and prayers are with you, Ava, and the rest of the family, as you try to cope with all the details, the memories, the hole in your hearts. Take time to heal. We will continue to ask for God to bring some blessings from all this. John has received his reward and is gifted with eternal life. Know that you are loved and prayed for each day.

AVA - Please know that John will be missed deeply. I especially will miss John's 'wave' every morning as he went down the hill. He was a great neighbor, he worked so hard on his property year around. You can be very proud of him - he was a great fella.
