“ Dear Carol, Billie, Zach, and Isabella,
Please accept my most sincere condolences in the loss of John. He was such a peaceful, quiet man who would help anyone. I remember him best sitting on the porch. I would walk my dog and come sit with the two of you. I especially remember him on the porch with Sugar and Frosty. He loved his family and animals, however when the grandchildren came, there was a new sparkle in his eye. I am so sorry for all of you. Please know you are all in my thoughts and wrapped up in my prayers, now and in all the days to come. Good neighbors are hard to come by and even harder to lose. God Bless all of you. With sadness and lots of love, Sue
