“ My condolences to the Puckett family. I first met Kenny in March 1994 at a Rick Lowery True Value training in Atlanta, GA. It's never easy being the "new guy" in a company, but Thanks to Kenny, my transition was made so much easier. Throughout the next 24 years of having the pleasure of calling Kenny a "friend", we got to share many great memories and spend many hours and days traveling together. He didn't really like driving in the big city of New York and Long Island, but he tolerated it because of our friendship. I feel proud and blessed to have known Kenny and will miss him much.

“ We're heart broken on the passing of our dear cousin. He was the apple of Uncle Jesse and Auntnt Ethel's eyes. He was a great man , loyal to his family, who did good works for everyone in his family and everyone he met. May God shed his Grace on his lovely family and give them peace. He is with God, a place he earned while on Earth. I love you Keknny and will miss you.

“ I am so sorry my favorite Uncle has gone on to a much happier place. I will miss knowing he’s there for all of us. Heaven got another very special angel. I hate having to be understanding. I am selfish. I want to keep all the treasures God gave me but they keep slipping away. My only comfort is my memories and I have so many great memories of him. His warmth, love, honesty, and purity of heart was abundant. I never questioned how he felt about me cause he always made it very clear. So I have no choice but let him go to the Lord but know I don’t do it happily and I will hold on to all of him I can.

My Dad was a great man. He was honest and sincere. He showed us there is a life out there if you want it. A noble man. I was his baby. I love you Dad. You knew my heart.

“ Sheila and family, Sheri and I send our prayers for you during this difficult time. We both have many fond memories of time spent with Kenny. Sheri will always remember him as the first corporate True Value person she met on the bus ride to the Market floor in Atlanta March 2005, my first market. Kenny and I developed a great relationship over the years, filled with more laughs than anything else. We are comforted in the knowledge he not only feels no more pain, but, enjoys his new spiritual body and that he has seen Him. With you, we look forward to the Blessed Reunion.
