

Laken Nicole Alley

June 16, 1993 - January 1, 2023

Laken Nicole Alley, 29, of Bluefield, VA passed away peacefully on January 1, 2023. Although she has departed this world far too soon, we know she was surrounded by the heavenly angels as she entered her eternal home.

Laken was born on June 16, 1993 in Bluefield, WV to her loving and faithful mother Teresa Alley of Bluefield, VA and father Clifton Henderson of Bluefield, WV. She was a lifelong resident of Bluefield, VA and a proud, 2011 Graham High School Graduate. After attending school, Laken always had a strong work ethic and was currently employed by ResCare Home Care in Princeton, WV. Because of her loving nature, many of her clients became good friends. To know Laken was to know that she had a loving heart and was a friend to everyone. She was fast to forgive and always faithful to those she loved. Her bright smile and shining personality brought joy to everyone in her presence. She was of the Christian faith and dedicated her life to the Lord when she chose to be baptized as a teen.

Laken was an enthusiastic fan of the North Carolina Tarheels and would often be seen wearing that baby blue to represent her team. She also had a love for 90's R&B music and was always singing. Although she had many hobbies and interest, her greatest joy in life was being a loving mother to her son.

She was preceded in death by her grandfathers, Thomas Alley, Jr. and Calvin Peoples.

In addition to her parents, those left to cherish Laken's life is her precious son, Kyree of the home; brother and best friend, Jordan Alley of Bluefield, VA; Half-“ Laken was one of the sweetest, nicest people you could have met. She was hard working and dedicated to her job and the folks that she cared for. I told her many times that I wished that I could have cloned her because her work ethic was incredible. My thoughts and prayers go out to her brother Jordan and her Mom and the rest of her family and especially to her baby boy who was the light of her life. She was loved and will be sadly missed.
