“ I am so sorry for what you have lost Your Mother was a good friend. She really is my family. I love her very much and I will miss her, If you need any thing you call me, I wish that I could be with you and your family, but I can not make it at this time. Kiss your Mother goodbye for me. Love to all Rita. Death is the hardest part of life not for those who have passed but for those who are left behind. they are forced to grasp the concept of leaving this earth to another atmosphere that we call heaven, but they call home.
