“ I first met Linda in 1997. With patience and diligence she showed me listing after listing every weekend as I travelled from Maryland to Virginia in search of the perfect home for my son and I. Weekend after weekend she would have ready a list of places for us to see. I was starting to get discouraged, 'I'll know it's the right one when I see it.' , I would tell her. Linda put her heart and soul into everything and she said, " I think I know a place that you would love, but I'm not sure it's listed right now. Let's take a look! " when we came up the driveway I knew it would be my new home! She was right, it's perfect for me. I trusted Linda's opinion and thought so highly of her I bought the home without even seeing the inside! We could never get the timing right and there were renters. Linda became such a dear friend over the years although our contact had become less and less over the years I will miss her dearly. "Whatcha' been up to girl?", she would say, and then she would listen. That's the kind of woman Linda was and her husband Steve was the perfect fit. Kindness, compassion and love all traits they have and many were touched by her friendship. I am so sorry for your loss and pray that The Lord will give you peace. I know he will say, "Whatcha been up to girl?", and then our precious Lord will listen.
