

Louis Francis Ercoline

February 17, 1947 - May 31, 2026

Louis F. (Lou) Ercoline passed away May 31, 2026 following a brief illness. Lou was born February 17, 1947 in Ashland, WV, the youngest of five children born to Louis and Margaret Ercoline.

Lou served honorably in the Army National Guard for six years, earning various medals and ribbons.

After attending Bluefield State College, he enjoyed a long and fulfilling career in the automobile industry.

Lou loved his family, his friends, WVU, and all things sports related. He will be remembered by all for generous and kind spirit.

Lou is survived by his sister-in-law, Joanne Ercoline, one cousin, and numerous nieces and nephews.

Friends are welcome to join the family for a remembrance of Lou's life on Friday, June 5, 2026 at 11:00am at Mercer Funeral Home.

“ Debbie and myself are saddened by the news of Lou's passing. We were great friends for over 40 years, and had the greatest times with Lou and all our friends at the lake and also the many fun times in Bluefield, football games, beach trips and many more. Rest in peace Lou and we will see you again in eternity.
