

Margaret "Peggy" Harman

September 20, 1924 - March 29, 2016

Columbus, OH- Margaret Kearns "Peggy" Harman died peacefully on March 29, 2016 with family by her side.

Peggy was born in 1924 in Gary, WV to Thelma (Francisco) and Walter J. Kearns and made Columbus, Ohio her home for the past 38 years.

She is survived by her elder sister Kathryn Kirkwood (Gambrills, MD) and is preceded in death by siblings Walter J. Kearns Jr., Thelma (Bentz), Barbara (Fischer), Paul Kearns and spouse Joseph (J.R.) Harman. Peggy is survived by 13 nieces and nephews and numerous great and great-great nieces and nephews.

She graduated from St. Elizabeth's School of Nursing in Dayton, Ohio in 1945. Peggy retired from Mount Carmel East Hospital in 1992. Peggy was an incredibly caring and dedicated nurse. She found her life's calling in helping others and her compassion and understanding helped countless individuals struggling through life's challenges. Peggy devoted thousands of hours to her special causes, most notably Amethyst House and Mohun Health Care Center in Columbus, Ohio. For those of us that knew Peggy well we will always remember her homemade cakes and brownies and her love of Ireland and St. Patrick's Day.

“ I am so sorry for your family's loss. Peggy was a dear friend to me for a long time, but we had lost touch. I just heard of her passing. The world is a better place for her having been with us. Bless you all--I know she loved each of you with all her heart.
